Call to Worship

One: The Spirit of God that breathes us into life whispers: Come home.

Many: We come home to the open arms of Love.

One: We come as we are.

Many: We come with joy.

One: We come hungry for nourishment.

Many: We come beaten down and burnt out.

One: We come eager to find our place in the whole.

Many: We come bringing all of who we are;

One: our grief and our anger,

Many: our regrets and our longings.

One: We give God thanks, for Christ's welcome is eternal.

*Gathering Hymn Weave, Weave, Weave Us Together No. 375

Unison Prayer of Invocation

Creative One, you have shaped us in such wondrously different ways. What gifts you have given us. Each bears glimpses of you in how we look, how we love, how we move through this world together. Make us good stewards of the riches of difference among us, that we might grow in empathy, deepen in love, and expand our understandings of justice. Amen.

Sung Benediction

*Go now in peace. Never be afraid.
God will go with you each hour of every day.
Go now in faith, steadfast, strong and true.
Know He will guide you in all you do.
Go now in love, and show you believe.
Reach out to others so all the world can see.
God will be there watching from above.
Go now in peace, in faith, and in love.*

John 5:1-9

After this there was a festival of the Jews, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. Now in Jerusalem by the Sheep Gate there is a pool, called in Hebrew Beth-zatha, which has five porticoes. In these lay many invalids—blind, lame, and paralyzed. One man was there who had been ill for thirty-eight years. When Jesus saw him lying there and knew that he had been there a long time, he said to him, “Do you want to be made well?” The sick man answered him, “Sir, I have no one to put me into the pool when the water is stirred up; and while I am making my way, someone else steps down ahead of me.” Jesus said to him, “Stand up, take your mat and walk.” At once the man was made well, and he took up his mat and began to walk. Now that day was a sabbath.

Autobiography in Five Chapters by Portia Nelson

Chapter One

I walk down the street. There is a deep hole in the sidewalk. I fall in. I am lost . . . I am helpless. It isn't my fault . . . It takes forever to find a way out.

Chapter Two

I walk down the same street. There is a deep hole in the sidewalk. I pretend I don't see it. I fall in again. I can't believe I am in this same place. But it isn't my fault. It still takes a long time to get out.

Chapter Three

I walk down the same street. There is a deep hole in the sidewalk. I see it there. I still fall . . . it's a habit . . . but, My eyes are open. I know where I am. It is my fault. I get out immediately.

Chapter Four

I walk down the same street. There is a deep hole in the sidewalk. I walk around it.

Chapter Five

I walk down another street.
