Call to Worship

One: Holy One, Provider, our ever-present help,

Many: In our emptiness, You remind us of your presence.

One: In your abundance, You remind us you are here.

Many: With a love that conquers death, You remind us we are yours.

One: On all our journeys, we know the risen Christ is in our midst.

Many: Inside and outside of this sanctuary, the risen Christ is in our midst.

One: May we lift our alleluias to heaven.

Many: Praise be to God.

*Gathering Hymn

A Mighty Fortress Is Our God

No. 469

*Unison Prayer of Invocation

God of the visible and invisible, we gaze upon roads ahead knowing that you are ahead of us. We seek your presence when the fog is heavy and our hearts are hurting. In the moments of haze, clear the path before us. In the moments of clarity, show your face to us. Allow us to hear your voice as we call for you. Amen.

*Benediction

Sung Benediction    *Go now in peace. Never be afraid.
God will go with you each hour of every day.
Go now in faith, steadfast, strong and true.
Know He will guide you in all you do.
Go now in love, and show you believe.
Reach out to others so all the world can see.
God will be there watching from above.
Go now in peace, in faith, and in love.*

Acts 9:1-10

1 Meanwhile Saul, still breathing threats and murder against the disciples of the Lord, went to the high priest

2 and asked him for letters to the synagogues at Damascus, so that if he found any who belonged to the Way, men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem.

3 Now as he was going along and approaching Damascus, suddenly a light from heaven flashed around him.

4 He fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to him, "Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me?"

5 He asked, "Who are you, Lord?" The reply came, "I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting.

6 But get up and enter the city, and you will be told what you are to do."

7 The men who were traveling with him stood speechless because they heard the voice but saw no one.

8 Saul got up from the ground, and though his eyes were open, he could see nothing; so they led him by the hand and brought him into Damascus.

9 For three days he was without sight, and neither ate nor drank.

10 Now there was a disciple in Damascus named Ananias. The Lord said to him in a vision, "Ananias." He answered, "Here I am, Lord."

17 So Ananias went and entered the house. He laid his hands on Saul and said, "Brother Saul, the Lord Jesus, who appeared to you on your way here, has sent me so that you may regain your sight and be filled with the Holy Spirit."

18 And immediately something like scales fell from his eyes, and his sight was restored. Then he got up and was baptized,

19 and after taking some food, he regained his strength. For several days he was with the disciples in Damascus,

20 and immediately he began to proclaim Jesus in the synagogues, saying, "He is the Son of God."

WORDS: Martin Luther, c. 1529; tr. Frederick H. Hedge, 1852, alt.; st. 3 alt. Ruth Duck, 1981 EIN' FESTE BURG
 MUSIC: Melody Martin Luther, c. 1529 87.87.66.667

Based on Psalm 46, this hymn by Martin Luther was probably inspired by the 1529 meeting that gave birth to the word 'Protestant.' Luther wrote or edited thirty-seven hymns and many hymn tunes.

WORDS: Percy Dearmer, Enlarged Songs of Praise, 1931, alt.
 MUSIC: Harold Friedell, 1957; adapt. Jet Turner, 1967, alt.

British hymnal editor Dearmer provides the words about the "community" of communion. The tune is named for Union Seminary, New York City, a training ground for clergy of many Protestant denominations, including the UCC.

THE STAFF OF FAITH
 86.86.88.86

Overlooked until its appearance in a British Congregational hymnbook in 1951, this hymn by a Congregational minister has been joined with a Swiss folk tune, first introduced into English usage in the Fellowship Hymn Book, 1910.
